

SCCT's 2012 Theatre Season

Deathtrap, one of the great successes of recent Broadway history, is an ingeniously constructed play dealing with the devious machinations of a writer of thrillers whose recent offerings have been flops, and who is prepared to go to any lengths to improve his fortune. The play provides twists and turns and sudden shocks in such abundance that audiences will be held spellbound until the very last moment. Feb 2, 3, 4 5 (mat). All performances: $20.

Something's Afoot is a murder-mystery in the form of a musical spoof of the whodunit genre that takes a strong satirical poke at Agatha Christie's murder mysteries. Ten people are stranded in an isolated English country estate during a raging thunderstorm. One by one cleverly fiendish devices pick them off. Mar 23, 24, 25 (mat), 29, 30. All performances: $23.

The Pajama Game is set in the Sleep-Tite Pajama factory during a strenuous labor negotiation. This musical tells the story of the simmering attraction between a handsome new manager and a lovely union representative. The budding romance is threatened by an impending strike. The musical score features many favorites such as: Hey There, Steam Heat, and Hernando's Hideaway. Jun 22, 23, 24 (mat), 29, 30. All performances: $23.

Follies 2012, the tenth anniversary of our first Follies, continues the tradition. Sep 6, 7, 8, 9 (mat). All performances: $20.

Over the River and Through the Woods features Nick, a single Italian-American guy from New Jersey. His parents have retired and moved to Florida, but that does not mean his family isn't still in Jersey. In fact, he sees both sets of his grandparents every Sunday for dinner. This is routine until he has to tell them that he's been offered a dream job. The job would take him away from his beloved, but annoying grandparents. Thus begins a series of schemes to keep Nick around. Nov 8, 9, 10, 11 (mat). All performances: $20.
