Friends of the Performing Arts - Yet another way to show your support!

As a non-profit club, we work very hard to provide excellent productions while keeping ticket prices as low as possible. Even with all of our volunteer performers, technical crew, and business folks, there are still many expenses that we cannot avoid – performance rights to plays and music, theater rentals, rehearsal and storage space rent, and much more. Ticket sales and membership dues go a long way toward covering these costs, but not 100%.

Please consider becoming a Friend of the Performing Arts. Just add a donation to your check, and you'll earn a mention in the program for each of next year's major productions, and our heartfelt thanks.
